

Histories of RGSi Research Symposium

Thursday 19 June 2025

Geoffrey Manton 331

09.30            Welcome (with tea and coffee)

10.00            Panel One

Marie Molloy – ‘Addressing Race and Racism’: Diversifying History Curricula in School and Colleges via University-led Outreach and Widening Participation Activities

Haseeb Khan – Roots in Manchester and Louisville: Muhammad Ali visits Phil Magbotiwan in Manchester, 1971

11.00            Break

11.15            Panel Two

Mark Fenemore – The ‘wrong sort’ of Nazi Serial Murderers: Paul Ogorzow and Bruno Lüdke

Rebecca Ball – Sex, Contraception and Abortifacients in English working-class Autobiographies 1900-1945

Marta Suarez – The Lion Cub, the Witcher, and the War: Ciri and Gendered Violence in the Witcher Universe

12.45            Lunch

1.45            Book Talk

Gavin Schaffer – An Unorthodox History: British Jews since 1945

2.30            Policy engagement with MetroPolis, the university’s think tank

Kay Lalor and Rossella Pulvirenti – Influencing Asylum Law in a Hostile Environment: The Rwanda Policy and the European Convention on Human Rights

3.15            Break

3.30            Panel Three

Lucy Burke – Cultures of Life and Death: Disability and Dementia in Literary Depictions of the Climate Emergency

Anne-Marie McCallion – A Third Conception of Justice: Recognition, Redistribution, and Repatriation

Rob Ellis – Understanding Deinstitutionalization in the Capital: London, Community Care and the 1959 Mental Health Act

5.00            Close